

SMITH HIGH SCHOOL PHYSICAL EDUCATION IMPROVEMENTS, GREENSBORO, NC

Who are we?

SAMR (Sa-mir) is an engineering firm that provides process engineering, design engineering, construction management – including pre-bid and bidding services, commissioning, controls, preliminary engineering and preliminary engineering reports (PERs) for federal, state and municipal governments and private developers on new construction and renovation projects. Our markets include K-12, higher education, water, and wastewater. We specialize in Mechanical, Electrical, Plumbing (MEP), HVAC and energy management.

EXCELLENCE

INNOVATION

SAVINGS

SAMR contracted with Guilford County Schools for the physical education improvements for two new structures located at Smith HS, Greensboro, NC. Project elements included:

- Prepared Mechanical and Plumbing construction documents for 2 new structures and renovation of existing building areas
- Demolished existing plumbing fixtures in the existing wrestling room area of the main building
- Replaced / demolished existing plumbing fixtures in the locker room areas of the main building. Installed new showers in the locker room areas of the main building
- Designed the HVAC and Plumbing for the new Field House, new Varsity Locker Room building, and existing Wrestling Room
- Installed new RTUs for the Field House. Installed new AHUs for the new Varsity Locker Room building and existing Wrestling Room